Hey, Mr. VJ (and DJ)

BY ALISON SIELOFF

Every Friday night you go out to hear a DJ play, you have a few drinks, you go home — nothing special or memorable about those evenings out. So change it up this week, and get your DJ/drink fix at Sekisui Pacific Rim (7443 Forsyth Boulevard, Clayton; 314-726-0033). There, you'll find DJ Leon Lamont, who's not just laying down a nice blanket of acid jazz for you to warm up to, he's also providing the soundtrack for multimedia artist Zlatko Cosic's work, which is shown on the walls of the sushi joint. When Cosic VJs, he uses two or three projectors and shows images from his short films and other works in addition to sometimes mixing in live video footage from the bar. So even though these VJ/DJ collabs happen every Friday in December from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. (no cover), each show is different — different film footage, different music and, most important, different people in the space. In an e-mail Cosic writes, "The visuals follow the beat from the DJ, and we are both creating an audio/video experience — creating 'visual music,' or something like that." Now, that's something you don't experience every Friday. For more information visit
